

Trinity Christian School
571 East Main Street
Statesboro, Georgia 30461
www.tcsstatesboro.com

School Profile

Trinity Christian School is a Christian, college-preparatory K5-12 school located in Statesboro, Georgia, a semi-rural university town in southeastern Georgia. TCS is a ministry of Trinity Presbyterian Church (PCA) and enrolls approximately 160 students. Since its inception in 1984, Trinity Christian School has sought to remain faithful to its calling to provide a quality education from a distinctly Christian perspective.

Advanced Placement Courses:

offered in Calculus (AB), English Literature and Composition, Physics, and U.S. History

Dual Enrollment:

Qualified juniors and seniors may take courses for college credit either on the TCS campus through the Senior-to-Sophomore program of Georgia Southern University or on the campus of GSU through the ACCEL program.

Class of 2010:

14 Students

SAT Scores:	Critical Reading	Math	Writing	Total
Class of 2010:	631.18	598.82	627.06	1857.06
5-year Average:	555.60	523.63	552.83	1632.06

College Acceptance:

Covenant College, Clemson University, University of Georgia, Georgia Institute of Technology, University of Tampa, Georgia Southern University, Florida Institute of Technology, East Georgia College, Georgia College and State University, Hillsdale College, Geneva College, Franciscan University of Steubenville, Armstrong Atlantic State University, Savannah State University, Liberty University, Toccoa Falls College, Emory University, Berry College

95 % of graduates attend either a 2-year or 4-year college or university

Upper School Faculty:

11 faculty members (6 full-time, 5 part-time)
7 (64%) hold advanced degrees

Accreditation:

Georgia Accrediting Commission

Affiliations:

Christian Schools International, Georgia Association of Christian Schools,
American Association of Christian Schools

International Students:

Trinity Christian School is authorized to grant I-20 forms to non-immigrant foreign students.